Regarding MUFG Bank employee at Komatsugawa Branch (Tokyo, Japan) who contracted COVID-19

Tokyo, April 13, 2020 --- On April 11, one employee at MUFG Bank's Komatsugawa Branch (Edogawa-ku, Tokyo, Japan) was determined to have contracted COVID-19.

The safety of our customers and staff is our first priority, and we are cooperating with the relevant authorities in striving to prevent any further spread. At present, we are taking the following actions with regard to the Komatsugawa Branch.

1. Determining the movements of the employee prior to the detection, and any customers who may have been exposed
2. Directing any employees who may have been exposed to remain at home and checking their health condition
3. Conducting a disinfection of the premises

The Komatsugawa Branch continues to operate as usual and remains open, but we are prioritizing the prevention of any spread of the infection to our customers and may direct customers to other nearby branches. We ask for your understanding.

The employee in question was seen by a doctor on April 5 with a fever and has not come to work since April 3. On April 11 the employee was determined to have contracted COVID-19.
